A TOUCH OF HISTORY

One of the few remaining original Settler's cottages in Cooktown, this house with its classic Weatherboard exterior and Tongue and Groove timber interior walls and timber floor, is set at the front of a large 1,682m² block and is perfect for a single person or couple. Being just 2 blocks from the main business centre and opposite the Council offices, the property is centrally located in a quiet street. The house has an air conditioned main bedroom, a smaller 2nd bedroom or office/hobby room, and a separate sitting room, in addition to the lounge, kitchen and internal bathroom. The lattice and shade cloth enclosed back patio looks out onto the pleasant garden setting, a haven for birds and butterflies, and encompasses the laundry with double concrete wash tubs at one end. The house is currently rented to good tenants showing a gross rental return of 5.8%. The large block has potential to be subdivided into 2 blocks subject to Council approval.
